

☆ Malchus 55

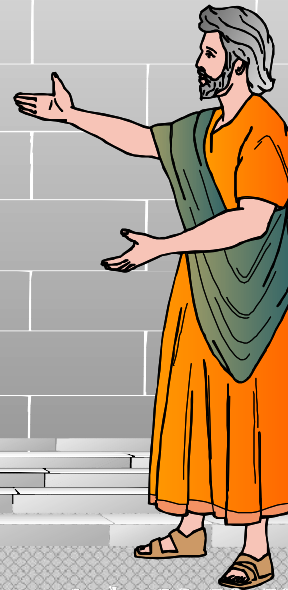

Luke 22:49-51

👑 Pontius Pilate 56

John 18

🔪 Joseph of Arimathea

Luke 23:50-53

57

🔪 Widow who gave all 54

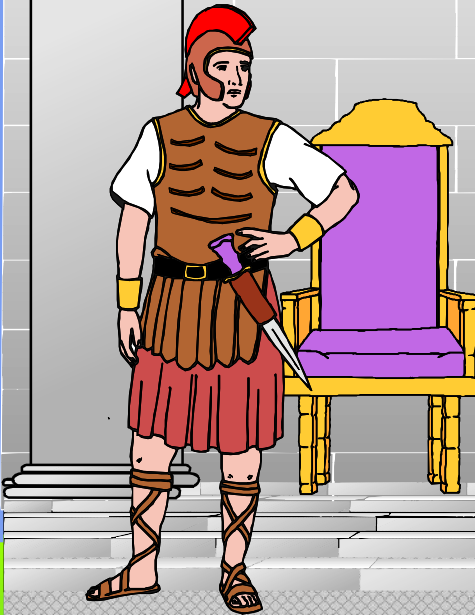

Mark 12:41-44

☆ Malchus 55

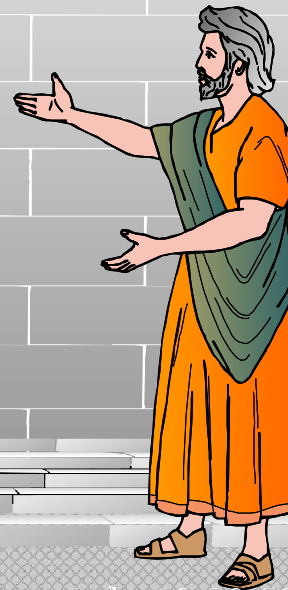

Luke 22:49-51

👑 Pontius Pilate 56

John 18

🔪 Joseph of Arimathea

Luke 23:50-53

57

🔪 Widow who gave all 54

Mark 12:41-44

Hero

32

"This poor widow has put in more than all those ... For they all gave out of their wealth; but she ... has put in everything she had." Mark 12:43-44

- Jesus admired the widow's heart, not the amount she gave
- The widow trusted God to provide for her, so she wasn't afraid to give Him all she had
- The Pharisees gave lots of money, but they did not sacrifice in order to give

eBibleTeacher.com/children
Bible Clips graphics

Disciple

33

"So Joseph bought some linen cloth, took down the body, wrapped it in the linen, and placed it in a tomb cut out of rock." Mark 15:46

- Joseph was a rich member of the Jewish council, but a good and righteous man
- He believed in Jesus, but would not admit it publicly
- He asked Pilate for Jesus' body, and used his own tomb to bury him
- Nicodemus helped him

eBibleTeacher.com/children
Bible Clips graphics

Ruler

33

"Wanting to satisfy the crowd, Pilate released Barabbas to them. He had Jesus flogged, and handed him over to be crucified." Mark 15:15

- Procurator of Judea, he was the Roman ruler, the one able to approve the death penalty
- Pilate believed Jesus was innocent, and tried to have him released
- The people accused Jesus of treason and demanded crucifixion
- Pilate made the crowd take responsibility, but did not stop them

eBibleTeacher.com/children
Bible Clips graphics

Opponent

33

"Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it and struck the high priest's servant, cutting off his right ear. (The servant's name was Malchus.)" John 18:10

- Servant of the high-priest Caiaphas
- Peter cut off his ear when he tried to arrest Jesus
- Jesus touched the ear and healed it
- One of Malchus' relatives questioned Peter at Jesus' trial

eBibleTeacher.com/children
Bible Clips graphics

Hero

32

"This poor widow has put in more than all those ... For they all gave out of their wealth; but she ... has put in everything she had." Mark 12:43-44

- Jesus admired the widow's heart, not the amount she gave
- The widow trusted God to provide for her, so she wasn't afraid to give Him all she had
- The Pharisees gave lots of money, but they did not sacrifice in order to give

eBibleTeacher.com/children
Bible Clips graphics

Disciple

33

"So Joseph bought some linen cloth, took down the body, wrapped it in the linen, and placed it in a tomb cut out of rock." Mark 15:46

- Joseph was a rich member of the Jewish council, but a good and righteous man
- He believed in Jesus, but would not admit it publicly
- He asked Pilate for Jesus' body, and used his own tomb to bury him
- Nicodemus helped him

eBibleTeacher.com/children
Bible Clips graphics

Ruler

33

"Wanting to satisfy the crowd, Pilate released Barabbas to them. He had Jesus flogged, and handed him over to be crucified." Mark 15:15

- Procurator of Judea, he was the Roman ruler, the one able to approve the death penalty
- Pilate believed Jesus was innocent, and tried to have him released
- The people accused Jesus of treason and demanded crucifixion
- Pilate made the crowd take responsibility, but did not stop them

eBibleTeacher.com/children
Bible Clips graphics

Opponent

33

"Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it and struck the high priest's servant, cutting off his right ear. (The servant's name was Malchus.)" John 18:10

- Servant of the high-priest Caiaphas
- Peter cut off his ear when he tried to arrest Jesus
- Jesus touched the ear and healed it
- One of Malchus' relatives questioned Peter at Jesus' trial

eBibleTeacher.com/children
Bible Clips graphics